Sandra Boone Payne, affectionately known as Sandra by her loved ones, passed away peacefully on August 26, 2024, in Reform, Alabama. Born on April 13, 1943, in Langdale, Alabama, Sandra's warm presence and nurturing spirit were hallmarks of her 81 years on this earth.

Sandra moved to the Buttston Community in 1950 and graduated from Camp Hill High School. She married her husband, Buddy Payne in 1961 and they lived on Lake Martin. She was an excellent cook, known for making the best biscuits every day for many years, a tradition that will be fondly remembered by her family and friends. She also made the best cornbread and chocolate pie as well. Sandra's talent extended beyond the kitchen to her arts and crafts, where she expressed her creativity through making and selling bead jewelry, a testament to her artistic spirit. Sandra was also passionately a collector of dolls and frogs Sandra's love for games, particularly dominos and cards, brought laughter and competitiveness to family gatherings. Her granddaughters will forever cherish the memories of their grandmother's playful spirit and the valuable life lessons learned during those precious times together.
