Judy Ann Crouch, known affectionately as Judy to her friends and family, passed away peacefully on November 15, 2024 at her home. Born on July 29, 1953, in St. Louis, Missouri, Judy's life was a tapestry of love, devotion, and service woven through the 71 years she graced this earth.

Judy is survived by her devoted husband of 51 years, Bro. Miles Wayne Crouch, and their children, Amy Williams and David Crouch. Judy's legacy continues through her grandchildren, John Brooks Williams and Tatyana Williams, and her great-grandchild, Abel Williams, who brought her immense joy. She was a sister held dear by Bill (Jill) Abernathy, Mike (Brenda) Abernathy, and Rita (Allen) Waldrop, and a respected mother-in-law to Jay Williams. Her life was enriched by the companionship of special friends Linda Williams, Wayne and Betty Barber, and Joe and Sheila Davis, as well as the fellowship of her church family at Pleasant Grove Church of Christ. Judy was preceded in death by her parents, James and Edna Mildred Abernathy; and sisters, Janis Butler and Nancy Bryant.

For 37 years, Judy's skillful hands crafted quality garments as a seamstress at Russell Corporation, from which she retired with a legacy of hard work and dedication. Her colleagues remember her as a pillar of strength and reliability, whose presence uplifted the spirit of the workplace.

Judy's interests were as varied as they were passionate. She found pleasure in sewing and crafting. Floral arrangements were among her specialties, each one a testament to her love for color and nature. Her son, David, shared her enthusiasm for jigsaw puzzles, a hobby that allowed them precious moments of togetherness.
