So sorry for your great loss Barbara, Drew, Lexie , Patty, Shelia, spouses and grandchildren. I hope you have wonderful memories of him like I do. He was a great friend. Taught me how to play golf. He and Barbara's house was always open. They entrusted me with the care of taking care of Drew when they needed a sitter. He provided my one and only limo ride to a wedding for a dear friend in Tennessee. Of course he had to spoil this elegant ride when he past out this awful candy !! I even went to an Auburn football game with them in Knoxville and happily cheered with him because he was that kind of friend. I will love him forever and never forget him. My prayers are with all of you . May God comfort you give you peace and you feel the promise of his hope of eternal life everyday. Love to you all . Pam Cash
