Julia T. Dendy, a beacon of love and faith, peacefully completed her earthly journey on August 4, 2025, at the age of 82. Born on July 19, 1943, Julia's life was a testament to the power of grace, kindness, and unwavering commitment to her beliefs and family.

Julia's love story began with her beloved husband, John Parker Dendy, to whom she was married for 61 incredible years. Together, they built a life filled with joy, challenges overcome, and lessons learned. Julia's legacy of love continues through her children: Thomas "Chris" (Shannon) Dendy of Auburn, AL, John Marcus (Dana) Dendy of Wetumpka, AL, and Lara Dendy (Jacava) Mattison of Jacksons Gap, AL. Her grandchildren, Mason Dendy, Parker Mattison, EmmaLee Mattison, Rachel Dendy, Ryan Dendy, Brandon (Christi) Bullard, Kyle Horn, and Shane Horn, and her great-grandchildren, Christen Thomas and Leon Brandly Bullard, will carry forward her spirit of generosity and compassion.

Julia's education at Massey Draughton Business College in Montgomery, AL, laid a strong foundation for her professional life. Mrs. Julia retired as Financial Director of the Lee-Russell Area Council of Government Area Agency on Aging. Yet, her most cherished role was that of a mentor and guiding light to her family. She seamlessly blended wisdom, humor, and patience to nurture a home where everyone felt valued and loved.

Her faith was the cornerstone of her existence. As a devout Christian, Julia lived her beliefs through her gentle nature and her unwavering faith, which touched all who knew her. She was a living example that a life rooted in faith can weather any storm and shine brightly for others to find their way.
