Aunt Betty was a woman whose love for her family shone brightly. I recall her as a gentle yet strong presence, always surrounded by those she cared for deeply. She embodied invaluable principles, gracefully navigating the challenges of life like a calm storm, offering warmth and comfort even when the winds blew harshly. Aunt Betty was loved and adored by everyone whose life she touched. She was a great teacher and I loved how she took me under her wing and allowed me to assist her with grading assignments and coordinating her outfits for school. Her personality and smile were contagious and she was so funny she could have done stand-up comedy. I spent as much time as possible at the house with my cousins including Chef Robin; I know the two of us probably got on her nerves but she always welcomed us with open arms (and sometimes the candy she confiscated from her students)Until we meet again,Love Marisa (Rico)
