Her legacy continues to shine through her great-grandchildren, Alexa Foshee, Chloe Crouch, Zoey Birch, Tracey Bradford, III, Connor Crouch, and Carson Birch. She also leaves behind her caring daughter-in-law, Misty Miles, who will miss her dearly.

For 35 years, Mary served as a folder and seamstress at Russell Corporation, where she was known for her meticulous work and unwavering commitment. Her colleagues remember her as a woman of integrity and warmth, whose presence brightened the workplace.

Mary and Charlie were such wonderful people. Charlie would come by to fish at Jaybird and Mary would be in the truck. They would stop and talk and show their catch. She always had a smile every time I saw her in spite of her tragic loses. Such a Godly friend!!! She is home now!! Deepest Sympathies! Audrey and Roger Davis

Aunt Mary was a major part of my early childhood. I have the fondest memories of running between our house and theirs playing. Summers in their garden. Snapping beans in their living room. Watching VHS with Jessica and staying overnight. Her kitchen table always felt like home. She will be greatly missed. ❤️

I remember summers in their garden, snapping beans in the living room, staying over watching vhs with Jessica. I'll always remember her kitchen table because it felt like home. She was always so soft spoken and kind. She will be greatly missed. ❤️
