Mrs. Williams passed away peacefully on December 15, 2025, at the age of 75. Born on June 2, 1950, Linda's life was a tapestry of cherished moments, woven with the threads of family, and the simple pleasures of life.

Linda found great delight in taking her kids and grandkids on adventures to the lake, the beach, and even on cruises. Her love for the beach was unparalleled; the feel of the warm sand beneath her feet and the sound of the waves brought her an immeasurable sense of peace and happiness.

Above all, Linda's heart belonged to her family. The birth of her grandchildren was a turning point in her life, leading her to retire early from her career to dedicate herself to their care. She poured her love and energy into nurturing them, creating an unbreakable bond that will forever be treasured.

A lover of life's simple joys, Linda never passed up an opportunity for a good shopping trip. Whether searching for the perfect gift for a loved one or treating herself, these excursions were a source of great pleasure and a testament to her sense of style and fun.

Linda's evenings were often spent in the comfort of her home, indulging in her favorite shows. This routine was more than mere entertainment; it was a cherished ritual that brought her relaxation and contentment.

Mrs. Linda H. Williams will be remembered for her radiant smile, her generous spirit, and the warmth she extended to everyone she met. Her legacy is one of love, laughter, and the countless memories she created with those she held dear. As we bid

I remember us as children at family gatherings. As cousins who rarely saw one another we would be instant friends at them. Years have gone by without seeing one another sadly but her beautifully written obituary touched my heart showing me the rest of her extraordinary life. My condolences to her wonderful family. Sending love from this cousin Pamela Thrower DuBose (Her grandmothers sister was Alma Seymour Thrower and my mother)
